BROKERAGE, SOLID REVENUES IN MAY

Alessandro Foti, CEO and General Manager of FinecoBank, commented:

“Total net sales were particularly robust in May, showing a growth above 25% year on year despite an extremely complex market phase. Unlike other similar contexts in the past years, clients are now avoiding disinvestments of assets suggested by emotivity, also thanks to the commitment of our financial advisors: this situation is going to enhance the future transition from deposits to AuM, in order to catch the opportunities connected to market stabilization. Finally, satisfying brokerage results confirm the soundness and the revenue diversification allowed by Fineco business model.”
