BORSA ITALIANA

Corporate Action Procedures

The following procedures include a General Principle as well as Guidelines and Tables, which are part of the Procedures themselves.

The following procedures apply in compliance with and without prejudice to the rules set in the Euronext Growth Milan Rules for Companies.

General Principle

R.1

Obligations of Euronext Growth Milan companies in the event of operations affecting trading in financial instruments

1. In the event of operations, other than the payment of dividends, involving the detachment of coupons representing rights from Euronext Growth Milan securities or splits or reverse splits of Euronext Growth Milan securities, except for the payment of dividends, the Euronext Growth Milan company must make the start of such operations coincide with one of the coupon-detachment days established by Borsa Italiana in the market calendar and comply with the related requirements laid down in the Guidelines.
2. Euronext Growth Milan companies must fix a record date according to article 83-terdecies of Consolidated Law on Finance for the purpose of dividend payment coinciding with the first settlement day following one of the coupon-detachment days in the calendar specified in the Guidelines and comply with the related constraints and requirements laid down therein. Shares on which a dividend is to be paid shall be traded ex, i.e. without the right to the dividend, from the coupon-detachment date preceding by one settlement day the date fixed for the record date. The payment date is established by the issuer in the manner that the date coincides with the first settlement day following the record date, except in case of particular circumstances notified to the market by the issuer which are inherent the nature of dividend (for example, where the possibility is foreseen for the persons entitled to the dividend payment, to opt for a payment in shares, instead of cash payment, the so-called script dividend) or have an impact on the timing of the dividend payment (e.g. payment in different tranches) or are due to the fact that the instrument is traded on more than one market.

Guidelines

Extraordinary corporate actions, Coupon detachments, payment of dividends

G.1

Coupon detachment dates or payment of periodic amounts

1. Borsa Italiana shall establish, within the framework of the market calendar, the dates for the detachment of coupons representative of rights attaching to Euronext Growth Milan securities and for the commencement of splits and reverse splits of Euronext Growth Milan securities. In the calendar:
 - a) for corporate events involving the exercise of rights or splits or reverse splits of Euronext Growth Milan securities, the reference date shall be the first trading day of each week of the year;
 - b) for the detachment of dividends payable by Euronext Growth Milan companies the reference date shall be the first trading day of each week of the year.
2. By way of derogation from paragraph 1a), of this article, the detachment of coupons deriving from a division shall take place in accordance with the time limits fixed for the operation to have legal effect and in accordance with G. 7.

G.2

Disclosure requirements and timing regarding ex-dates and dividend payments

1. No later than the date of the meeting of the body that resolves to pay dividends, Euronext Growth Milan companies shall notify the following:
 - a) where the competent body of the company resolves to pay a dividend:
 - the coupon-detachment (ex-date) and the date relevant for the entitlement to the dividend payment under article 83-terdecies of Consolidated Law on Finance (record date), the date on which dividend will be paid (payment date);
 - the amount of the dividend per share, with an indication of whether this is gross or net of the taxes withheld as required by law;
 - the coupon number of the dividend.
 - any extraordinary dividend; the term "extraordinary dividend" means a dividend, in cash or in kind, that the company classifies as additional with respect to the dividend deriving from the distribution of the normal profits for the year or with respect to the normal dividend policy.

b) where the competent body of the company resolves not to pay any dividend, the adoption of such resolution.

2. At least one trading day must pass between the date of the meeting of the body that resolves to pay dividends and the ex-date. This is especially necessary where the approval of the proposal to distribute a dividend takes place on a day immediately preceding a detachment date in the calendar, in view of the time needed by Borsa Italiana to transmit the information on the dividend payment to the market.
3. For the same purposes as set out in paragraph 2, where the competent body approves the payment of an interim dividend, at least one trading day must pass between the date of the meeting of the body that approved the payment thereof and the ex-date.
