TITLE 2.2 CONDITIONS FOR ADMISSION

Chapter 1 — Shares

Article 2.2.1 (Requirements for issuers of shares)

1. Shares may be admitted to listing where they represent the capital of issuers who have published and filed, in compliance with national law, the solo or consolidated annual accounts for the last three financial years, of which at least the latest must be accompanied by an opinion expressed by a statutory or a statutory auditing company registered in the register held by the Ministry of Economy and Finance, pursuant to Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law. Admission to listing may not be granted where statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company has rendered an adverse opinion or a disclaimer.
2. Companies resulting from extraordinary corporate actions or whose assets and liabilities underwent material changes in the financial year preceding that of the submission of the application or subsequently must produce, in addition to what is provided for in paragraph 1:
 - a pro forma income statement for at least one financial year ended prior to the date of submission of the application;
 - a pro forma balance sheet referring to the closing date of the financial year preceding the application where the extraordinary corporate actions or the material changes occurred after that date;
 - the other pro forma interim documents specified in the Instructions.

Where it emerges during the preparation of the pro forma documents referred to in this paragraph that the accounting data they contain are objectively unreliable, Borsa Italiana may accept different historical accounting reconstructions upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.

3. The accounting documents referred to in paragraph 2 must be accompanied by the report of a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company which has an adequate knowledge of the subjects involved and his opinion must be based on adequate checking. The report contains the results of the checking activity on the reasonableness of the basic assumptions made in preparing the pro-forma data, the correct application of the methods used and the correctness of the accounting policies applied.

A similar report must be issued by the statutory auditor or the statutory the auditing company on historical accounting reconstructions different from pro forma data; the reasons must be given for any limitations or impediments to rendering the opinion.

4. The annual financial statements on a solo and a consolidated basis and the annual accounting documents that provide the basis for the pro forma documents referred to in paragraph 2 must be fully audited to a preponderant extent. Where this is objectively impossible, Borsa Italiana may accept that only the bulk of the data are fully audited upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.

5. In exceptional circumstances, by way of derogation from paragraph 1, a smaller number of annual accounts may be accepted, possibly supplemented by the documentation referred to in paragraph 2 accompanied by that provided for in paragraphs 3 and 4, or where issuers have never published and filed an annual report, the documentation referred to in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4. Such derogation must be in the interests of the issuer and of investors and the latter must have all the information needed to evaluate the issuer and the instruments whose admission to listing is being applied for.
6. The issuer and the main companies belonging to the group it heads must adopt a management control system permitting corporate officers to obtain, regularly and promptly, a sufficiently complete picture of the profits and losses and financial situation of the company and, where applicable, of the main companies belonging to the group it heads and making it possible to:
- monitor the key performance indicators and risk factors of the company and, where applicable, of the main companies belonging to the group it heads;
 - produce data and information, with special reference to financial data, at a level of detail adequate to the type of business, the complexity of the organisation and the management's specific information needs;
 - prepare forward-looking financial data for the business plan and the budget and verify the achievement of the company's objectives by means of gap analysis.
- To this end the issuer shall draw up a Memorandum, approved by the board of directors, in which it must describe the management control system it has adopted, together with the main companies belonging to the group it heads. The Memorandum must contain a summary but complete description of the components of the system, the persons responsible for the system and the information content, with special reference to the indicators used to monitor the key performance indicators and corporate risk factors.
- The Memorandum must also specify any problem areas present in the management control system at the time the application is submitted; the issuer must specify to which categories of problems provided for by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions the problems belong.
7. The issuer must carry on, directly or through its subsidiaries and in conditions of management autonomy, an activity capable of generating revenues.
- Borsa Italiana, in assessing the existence of conditions of management autonomy, shall verify that there are no impediments to the maximisation of the issuer's economic and financial objectives. Where Borsa Italiana finds circumstances potentially able to impede the achievement of management autonomy, it shall require the public to be adequately informed at the time of admission to listing and on a continuous basis where appropriate.
- Companies subject to direction and coordination by another company must not fall into the conditions that forbid the admission to listing pursuant to Article 37 of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.
- The issuer's assets or revenues must not consist preponderantly of an investment or of the results of an investment in a company whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market.
8. Companies with control over companies established and regulated under the laws of non-EU countries must comply with the admission requirements established in Article 36 of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.

9. Financial companies with equity composed exclusively of equity investments must comply with the admission requirements established in Article 38 of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.
10. Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, the shares of banche popolari and cooperative companies authorised to engage in insurance may be admitted provided that in the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the issuer:
 - provision is made for ordinary issues of new shares to be reserved to new shareholders and implemented by the allotment of a single share;
 - the minimum registration period required for recognition of the right to vote in shareholders' meetings is not more than 90 days.
11. The shares of cooperative companies may be admitted provided:
 - the provisions of the article of incorporation of the issuer and/or the resolution for the issue of the shares contain/contains specific provisions ensuring that the shares issued are freely transferable;
 - the provisions of the article of incorporation and/or of the resolution for the issue of the shares comply with the applicable provisions of law.
12. The requirements established in the preceding paragraphs shall not apply to the admission of shares of the same issuer belonging to a different category with respect to those already issued.
13. The issuer must have appointed a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company to audit its annual accounts in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 except as provided for by the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law.
14. Where the creditworthiness of the issuer has been rated by a local or international credit rating agency in the twelve months preceding the submission of the application, the rating or its update must be notified to Borsa Italiana if public. This information will be disclosed to the market in the Notice establishing the date of the start of trading.
15. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, satisfaction of the requirements referred to in this article shall be verified by Consob.
16. In granting admission to trading for ordinary shares of issuers whose ordinary shares are already admitted on other EU or non-EU markets, Borsa Italiana may waive the preceding paragraphs, taking account of factors including but not limited to: the inclusion of the shares in leading international or national financial indices, the size of the issuer and how long it has been admitted to trading.

Article 2.2.2 (Requirements for the shares)

1. For the purposes of admission to listing, the shares must satisfy the following requirements:

- a) a foreseeable market capitalisation of at least 40 million euros; Borsa Italiana may admit shares with a smaller market capitalisation where it deems an adequate market for such shares will develop;
 - b) adequate distribution, which shall be presumed to exist where shares representing at least 25% of the capital represented by shares of the same class are distributed among professional as well as non-professional investors; Borsa Italiana may, however, deem this requirement to be satisfied where the market value of the shares held by the public suggests the conditions for regular operation of the market can be met by a smaller percentage than that specified above. In computing the percentage:
 - 1) account shall not be taken of controlling shareholdings or of shareholdings bound by shareholders' agreements or of shareholdings subject to restrictions on the transferability of shares (lock-up agreements) with a duration of more than 6 months;
 - 2) account shall not be taken of shareholdings exceeding 2%, except where Borsa Italiana, in response to a reasoned request from the issuer, grants a derogation after evaluating the nature of the investor and the purpose of the shareholding. The calculation of shareholdings must be carried out in accordance with the criteria established in Article 118 of Consob Regulation 11971/1999 with reference to the number of ordinary shares and taking into account the exemptions as of article 119-bis of the Consob Regulation 11971/99; in the case of SMEs, shareholdings greater than 5% are not taken into account;
 - 3) account shall be taken of the shares held by collective investment undertakings, pension funds and social security institutions. Exclusively for the purpose of this provision, foreign collective investment undertakings not authorised to engage in marketing in Italy shall also be considered.
2. Borsa Italiana may deem the distribution among only professional investors to be adequate if the market value of the shares held by such investors or the number thereof suggests the conditions for regular operation of the market can in any case be met.
 3. In granting admission to trading of ordinary shares of issuers whose ordinary shares have already been admitted or are admitted contemporaneously to trading on a regulated EU or non-EU market or on a multilateral trading facility or are the result of a spin-off or of a merger with the creation of a new company or of comparable transactions involving companies listed on a regulated market, Borsa Italiana shall assess the sufficient distribution requirement referred to in paragraph 1(b) taking into account the distribution of the ordinary shares. For shares admitted to trading on a multilateral trading facility, Borsa Italiana shall consider the requirement referred to in paragraph 1(b) satisfied when the performance of prices and the volume of trades indicate that the requirements for the regular operation of the market can be met.
 4. In the case of newly issued shares of the same class and with the same features, apart from dividend entitlement, as those already listed, the provisions of the preceding paragraph 1 shall not apply. Borsa Italiana may decide their admission to listing on a separate line, having regard to the quantity and distribution of the shares and to the expected duration of the separate line.

5. Except for the shares of banche popolari and cooperative companies authorised to engage in insurance, classes of shares without the right to vote in ordinary shareholders' meetings may not be admitted to listing unless shares with such right are already listed or are the subject of a simultaneous application for admission to listing.
6. The provisions of paragraph 1(b) shall not apply to savings shares, for which adequate distribution must be such as ensures the regular operation of the market.
7. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, satisfaction of the requirements referred to in this article shall be verified by Consob.

These limitations shall not apply to the exercise of stock options or pre-emptive rights referring to the financial instruments or, exclusively for shares deriving from stock option plans, to consequent disposals provided they are made at the same time as the exercise of the rights. Nor shall they apply in the event of exceptional circumstances of personal necessity, with adequate reasons given to the company by the interested party.

Where a one-tier or a two-tier system of management and control is adopted, the principles and criteria of Article 10 of the Corporate Governance Code shall apply.

4. Star status shall be subject to the appointment of a specialist charged with performing the functions referred to in Article 2.3.5 for ordinary shares.

10. With the periodicity indicated in the Instructions Borsa Italiana may issue a Notice withdrawing Star status from shares that failed to satisfy the requirements referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4, with account taken of the importance and frequency of the failures. With the periodicity indicated in the Instructions, Borsa Italiana may also withdraw Star status from shares for which the conditions referred to in paragraph 3(e) have been breached since the date of admission to the Star segment. With the same periodicity, Borsa Italiana may withdraw Star status from shares whose free float, calculated in accordance with Article 2.2.2, paragraph 1(b), has fallen below the percentage of the company's capital established in the Instructions. In such a case, Borsa Italiana verifies, for the purpose of the exclusion, if the shareholding(s) of the controlling shareholder(s) has exceeded the

Such request may not be submitted before one year has past from the withdrawal of Star status even if the withdrawal was made at the request of the issuer upon the occurrence of circumstances that could give rise to the conditions referred to in this paragraph, subparagraphs a), b) and c).

13. Borsa Italiana, also by way of derogation from the periodicity specified in the Instructions, may adopt a reasoned decision withdrawing Star status from the shares of a company with respect to which events have occurred that are basically in contrast with complete compliance with the high standards characteristic of the Star segment and that are likely to impact negatively on the segment's reputation. In such cases Borsa Italiana, at the request of the interested company, may grant Star status again to the shares of the company referred to in the preceding paragraph if the cause of the exclusion no longer exists and provided the requirements referred to in Article 2.2.3 of the Rules are satisfied. Such request may also be submitted before one year has past from the withdrawal of Star status.

 - b) Italian or foreign companies or entities whose exclusive corporate purpose is to make one or more issues of financial instruments;
 - c) companies or entities for which the obligations connected with the issue are unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by another person (guarantor) belonging to the category referred to in subparagraph a).
2. In the case referred to in paragraph 1 (c) the requirements and duties provided for in this part of the Rules for the issuer shall be deemed to refer to the guarantor of the issue.
3. Securitised derivative financial instruments may be admitted to listing when they are of an issuer that has published and filed, in compliance with national law, the solo and, where applicable, consolidated annual accounts for the latest two financial years (or of the last financial year if the issuer has been in operation for a shorter period), of which at least the latest must be accompanied by an opinion of a statutory auditor or an statutory auditing company drawn up in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law. Admission to listing may not be granted where the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company has rendered an adverse opinion or a disclaimer. In the case of recently created issuers Borsa Italiana may accept, instead of audited annual accounts, a balance sheet and income statement for a period of less than one year provided they have been audited by a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company. The issuer must also have assigned the statutory audit mandate to audit the annual accounts for the current year at the date the application for admission to listing is submitted in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law.
4. Where the creditworthiness of issuers of securitised derivative financial instruments or securitised derivative financial instruments themselves has been rated by a local or international credit rating agency in the twelve months preceding the submission of the application, the rating or its update must be notified to Borsa Italiana if public. This information will be disclosed to the market in the Notice establishing the date of the start of trading.

5. Borsa Italiana may, for the purpose of evaluating the suitability of the issuer of securitised derivative financial instruments, take into consideration the latter's previous experience with securitised derivative financial instruments, and may ask it to describe the risk-hedging strategies it intends to adopt in connection with the issue.

Article 2.2.21 (Underlying assets)

1. Securitised derivative financial instruments may be admitted to listing that are based on underlying assets specified in the Instructions, for which a reliable and up-to-date price or some other measure of value is available to the public.
2. Borsa Italiana may require the issuer of securitised derivative financial instruments to demonstrate that the issuers of the underlying financial instruments are subject to rules concerning the information to be made available to the public and the supervisory authorities substantially equivalent to those in force in Italy.
3. Where, upon the reaching of given values of the underlying or the occurrence of given events, securitised derivative financial instruments provide for the extinction thereof and/or for a change in the original contractual conditions or for the issuer to be able to repay the principal early, the issuer must make the required communications within the time limits specified by Borsa Italiana.

Article 2.2.22 (Requirements for securitised derivative financial instruments)

1. For the admission to listing of securitised derivative financial instruments, the following conditions must be satisfied:
 - a) the characteristics of the instruments must be clear and unambiguous and permit a correlation between the price of the financial instrument and the price or other measure of the underlying; Borsa Italiana may require the issuer to specify the percentage composition of the various components of the financial instrument and the commissions;
 - b) where settlement in cash is envisaged, the procedure for fixing the settlement price must guarantee that such price correctly reflects the price or other measure of the value of the underlying. The provisions of the Instructions shall also apply;
 - c) where the underlying is a financial instrument traded on regulated markets organised and managed by Borsa Italiana, in conformity with what is established in the listing prospectus, settlement may consist in the physical delivery of the underlying.
 - d) provision must be made for adjustments where extraordinary events occur regarding the underlyings. Such adjustments must be based on generally accepted methods and tend to neutralise the distortionary effects of the event as far as possible. The issuer must undertake to notify such adjustments to Borsa Italiana, for dissemination to the market, appropriately in advance of the date on which the adjustments will take effect.

2. For securitised derivative financial instruments identified in the Instructions, a parity/multiple must be established as specified in the Instructions.
3. For securitised derivative financial instruments identified in the Instructions, provision must be made for their exercise as specified in the Instructions.
4. For securitised derivative financial instruments identified in the Instructions, provision must be made for a maturity of not more than 5 years. Borsa Italiana may admit financial instruments with a maturity of more than 5 years to listing in response to a reasoned request from the issuer provided sufficient information is available for the determination of the instrument's price.
5. For securitised derivative financial instruments whose underlying consists of shares traded on regulated markets organised and managed by Borsa Italiana, the total number of shares underlying an individual issue may not exceed 2% of the total number of such shares in circulation when the application for admission is submitted. Borsa Italiana may establish a different percentage in relation to the features of the underlying share.
6. For securitised derivative financial instruments issued by persons referred to in Article 2.2.20, subparagraph 1(b), the following conditions must also be satisfied:
 - a) the assets acquired with the proceeds deriving from the subscription of an issue must constitute, to all intents and purposes, an independent pool of assets separated from that of the issuer;
 - b) the assets acquired with the proceeds deriving from the subscription of an issue and the income earned on such assets must be assigned exclusively to satisfy the rights incorporated in the financial instruments and possibly to meet the costs of the transaction;
 - c) actions may not be brought against assets acquired with the proceeds deriving from the subscription of an issue by creditors other than the holders of the financial instruments in question.
7. For securitised derivative financial instruments provision may also be made, at least for some categories of qualified intermediaries, for the subscription or the redemption on a continuous basis by delivering the financial instruments or commodities that make up the assets or an equivalent amount of cash. To this end there must be adequate provisions for the settlement and delivery of the underlying.
8. For the listing of securitised derivative financial instruments, there must be a specialist that enters into an undertaking pursuant to Article 4.4.1.
9. In any case, Borsa Italiana shall reserve the right to reject the admission to listing of securitised derivative financial instruments in order to ensure the stability and proper trading of the underlyings related thereto.

3. Where the creditworthiness of issuers of structured bonds has been rated by a local or international credit rating agency in the twelve months preceding the submission of the application, the rating or its update must be notified to Borsa Italiana if public, with an indication of the rating, if any, of the individual issue. This information will be disclosed to the market in the Notice establishing the date of the start of trading.
4. Borsa Italiana may, for the purpose of evaluating the suitability of the issuer of structured bonds, ask it to describe the risk-hedging strategies it intends to adopt in connection with the issue.
5. The issuer of the structured bonds must also demonstrate the availability of information updated daily and made available to the public at least once a day on the prices recorded by the assets chosen for the linkage mechanism in the principal market in which they are listed. Borsa Italiana reserves the right to require the issuer during the life of the bonds to communicate, for dissemination to the market, the movements in the prices of the financial assets chosen for the linkage mechanism.

 - b) provision be made for adjustments where extraordinary events occur regarding the underlying assets referred to in Article 2.2.27, subparagraphs a), e), f), g) and h) chosen for the linkage mechanism. Such adjustments must be based on generally accepted methods and tend to neutralise the distortionary effects of the event as far as possible. The issuer of the structured bonds must also undertake to notify such adjustments to Borsa Italiana, for dissemination to the market, appropriately in advance of the date on which the adjustments will take effect.

The matters referred to in the provisions of subparagraphs a) and b) must be contained in the issue rules.

3. Borsa Italiana may also require for structured bonds that where the method of calculation involved in the linkage mechanism is in the form of a mathematical formula, a numerical example be given that is not misleading.
4. Borsa Italiana recommends that the prices to be used for the linkage mechanism should normally be based on a significant volume of trading in the financial asset in question.
5. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, satisfaction of the requirements referred to in this article shall be verified by Consob.

Chapter 9 - Asset-backed securities

Article 2.2.30

(Definition of asset-backed securities)

Article 2.2.31

In the case referred to in paragraph 1(b) of Article 2.2.30, Borsa Italiana may waive this provision where it deems adequate the documentation demonstrating that the claims or other assets, whose receipt or realisation serves to satisfy the rights incorporated in the asset-backed securities, constitute to all effects and purposes a independent pool of assets separated from that of the company and from that of other securitisation operations and that no actions concerning such a independent pool of assets may be brought by creditors other than holders of the related asset-backed securities.
2. The annual accounts of issuers of asset-backed securities must be accompanied by an opinion of a statutory auditor or of a statutory auditing company registered in the register held by the Ministry of Economy and Finance drawn up in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law. - b) be distributed among non-professional investors and/or professional investors to an extent deemed adequate by Borsa Italiana to meet the need for regular operation of the market;

2. Borsa Italiana reserves the right to subject asset-backed securities to Articles 2.2.28, paragraphs 4, 5 and 6, and 2.2.29, paragraphs 2, 3 and 4, of Chapter 8 of this Title where their redemption and/or remuneration is linked to:

In the latter case Borsa Italiana shall inform Consob of the omission.

2. Where application is made for the listing of the units of a closed-end fund subscribed by means of the contribution of assets, Borsa Italiana may waive the provisions of paragraph 1(a) provided pro forma statements of profits and losses and assets and liabilities are produced for at least one half year.
3. In the case of closed-end funds which invest in securities, the amount of the fund must be at least 25 million euros.

2. The listing of open-end CIUs other than ETFs requires the presence of an appointed intermediary that has entered into the undertakings referred to in Article 4.3.11 of the Rules. If the relationship is terminated for any reason, Borsa Italiana must be notified in writing, in the manner specified in the Instructions for specialists on the ETFplus market.
3. Where, subsequent to listing, the requirements referred to in the previous paragraphs are no longer satisfied, Borsa Italiana may suspend or, in more serious cases, revoke the listing of the units/shares of the open-end CIU in accordance with Title 2.5 of these Rules.

4. Units/shares of ETFs may be admitted to listing, provided the following conditions are satisfied:
 - a) the CIU's prospectus provides for the units/shares of the CIU to be listed on a regulated market;

Chapter 11 – Shares of investment companies

Article 2.2.36

(Requirements for listing of shares of investment companies)

1. Ordinary shares representing the capital of investment companies may be admitted to listing provided the clause of the bylaws establishing the corporate purpose provides for investment in majority and minority holdings in listed and unlisted companies, in financial instruments, branches or corporate units in accordance with their investment policies and the performance of the related instrumental activities. The bylaws shall also provide for substantial changes to the investment policy (such as the level of diversification) to be made by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.
The company must not invest more than 20% of its assets in units of Italian or foreign hedge funds.

The company must not engage in trading of listed and unlisted financial instruments on a continuous basis or in a manner not conforming to its nature of a medium and long-term investor.

2. The bylaws must provide that if issuers do not invest at least 50% of their total assets within 36 months of the date of the admission decision the shareholders' meeting must be convened to resolve on the winding up of the company.
3. Foreign issuers must demonstrate that there are no impediments to their substantial compliance with these provisions.
4. Issuers that have failed to comply with the minimum level of diversification referred to in Article 2.2.37, paragraph 9, for more than 12 months must call as soon as possible the extraordinary shareholders' meeting with the aim to modify the investment policy and to adapt the corporate purpose to the activity effectively performed.

Article 2.2.37
(Requirements for investment companies)

1. Shares may be admitted to listing where they represent the capital of investment companies that have published and filed, in compliance with national law, their solo or consolidated annual accounts for at least one financial year, accompanied by an opinion of the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company registered with the register held by the Ministry of Economy and Finance in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law. Admission to listing may not be granted where the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company has rendered an adverse opinion or a disclaimer.
2. In the case of recently created companies and by way of derogation from paragraph 1, Borsa Italiana, in response to a reasoned request from the issuer, may accept a balance sheet and income statement for a period of less than one year provided they have been audited by a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company in accordance with paragraph 1.
3. Companies resulting from extraordinary corporate actions or whose assets and liabilities underwent material changes in the financial year preceding that of the submission of the application or subsequently must produce, in addition to what is provided for in paragraph 1:
 - a pro forma income statement for at least one half-year ended prior to the date of submission of the application;
 - a pro forma balance sheet referring to the closing date of the half-year preceding the application where the extraordinary corporate actions or the material changes occurred after that date.

Where it emerges during the preparation of the pro forma documents referred to in this paragraph that the accounting data they contain are objectively unreliable, Borsa Italiana may accept different historical accounting reconstructions upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.

4. The accounting documents referred to in paragraph 3 must be accompanied by the report of a statutory auditor or an statutory auditing company which has an adequate knowledge of the subjects involved and his opinion must be based on adequate checking. The report contains the results of the checking activity containing its opinion on the reasonableness of the basic assumptions made in preparing the pro-forma data, the correct application of the methods used and the correctness of the accounting standards applied.

A similar report must be issued by the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company on historical accounting reconstructions different from pro forma data; the reasons must be given for any limitations or impediments to rendering the opinion.

5. The annual financial statements on a solo and a consolidated basis and the accounting reconstructions that provide the basis for the pro forma documents referred to in paragraph 3 must be fully audited to a preponderant extent. Where this is objectively impossible, Borsa Italiana may accept that only the bulk of the data are fully audited upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.
6. The issuer must be able to operate in conditions of management autonomy. Borsa Italiana, in assessing the existence of conditions of management autonomy, shall verify that there are no impediments to the maximisation of the issuer's economic and financial objectives. Where Borsa Italiana finds circumstances potentially able to impede the achievement of management autonomy, it shall require the public to be adequately informed at the time of admission to listing and on a continuous basis where appropriate.

Companies subject to direction and coordination by another company must not fall into the conditions that forbid the admission to listing pursuant to Article 37, of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.

7. Companies with control over companies established and regulated under the laws of non-EU countries must comply with the admission requirements established in Article 36 of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.
8. Financial companies with equity composed exclusively of equity investments must comply with the admission requirements established in Article 38 of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.
9. Issuers must establish and pursue an investment policy. The policy must be sufficiently precise and detailed so as to produce clear guidelines and limits for the choice of investment assets and thus provide the basis for the investment choices of individual investors, with account also taken of the latter's non-professional nature. The policy must also provide an adequate degree of diversification, which is presumed to have been achieved when provision is made for investment in at least three different assets, none of which accounts for more than 50% of the company's total assets.

The investment policy must specify at least:

- the type or types of business sector, the geographical area or areas and the type of asset or company that can be invested in;
- the means or strategy by means of which to implement the investment policy;
- whether the issuer will act as an active or a passive investor and, where applicable, the expected duration of each investment;
- the degree of diversification of the investments and the maximum exposure limits, where applicable;
- the policy for borrowing and cross-shareholdings, where applicable.

10. At least three members of the management body and managers, and in any case all the persons who have investment mandates, must have had a total of at least three years experience in the strategic management of investments of the same size and type as those of the company.
11. An adequate number of directors must satisfy the independence requirements of the Corporate Governance Code. To this end consideration is given to the criteria established by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions for obtaining Star status as regards the adequacy of the number of independent directors referred to in Article 2.2.3, paragraph 3(l).
12. Issuers shall take all reasonable measures to identify conflicts of interest that could arise from their investment activity and suitable organizational and procedural measures for the handling of conflicts of interest. In particular, issuers must ensure that where a director or person who manages the investments performs comparable functions in companies that perform similar or instrumental activities procedures exist guaranteeing independent management.

Issuers must establish in writing, maintain and apply an effective policy for the handling of conflicts of interest.

The policy for the handling of conflicts of interest must at least:
 - permit the identification, in connection with the investment activity, the circumstances that generate or could generate a conflict of interest involving, in particular, directors and persons who manage the investments;
 - specify the procedures to be followed and the measures to be adopted for the handling of such conflicts.
13. The issuer must have appointed statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company to audit its annual accounts in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January 2010 except as provided for by the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law.
14. Where the creditworthiness of the issuer or its subsidiaries has been rated by a local or international credit rating agency in the twelve months preceding the submission of the application, the rating or its update must be notified to Borsa Italiana if public. This information will be disclosed to the market in the Notice establishing the date of the start of trading.

Article 2.2.38
(Requirements for the shares)

1. For the purposes of admission to listing, the shares must satisfy the following requirements:
 - a) a foreseeable market capitalisation of at least 40 million euros; Borsa Italiana may admit the shares of investment companies with a smaller market capitalisation where it deems an adequate market for such shares will develop;
 - b) adequate distribution, which shall be presumed to exist where shares representing at least 25% of the capital represented by shares of the same class are distributed among non-professional investors and/or professional investors; Borsa Italiana may, however, deem this requirement to be satisfied where the market value of the shares held by the public suggests the conditions for regular operation of the market can be met by a smaller percentage than that specified above. In computing the percentage:

- 1) account shall not be taken of controlling shareholdings or of shareholdings bound by shareholders' agreements or of shareholdings subject to restrictions on the transferability of shares (lock-up agreements) with a duration of more than 6 months;
 - 2) account shall not be taken of shareholdings exceeding 2%, except where Borsa Italiana, in response to a reasoned request from the issuer, grants a derogation after evaluating the nature of the investor and the purpose of the shareholding. The calculation of shareholdings must be carried out in accordance with the criteria established in Article 118 of Consob Regulation 11971/1999 with reference to the number of ordinary shares and taking into account the exemptions as of article 119-bis of the Consob Regulation 11971/99; in the case of SMEs, shareholdings greater than 5% are not taken into account;
 - 3) account shall be taken of the shares held by collective investment undertakings, pension funds and social security institutions. Exclusively for the purpose of this provision, foreign collective investment undertakings not authorised to engage in marketing in Italy shall also be considered.
2. In the case of newly issued shares of the same class and with the same features, apart from dividend entitlement, as those already listed, the provisions of the preceding paragraph 1 shall not apply. Borsa Italiana may decide their admission to listing on a separate line, having regard to the quantity and distribution of the shares and to the expected duration of the separate line.

Chapter 12 – Shares of Real Investment Companies (Reic)

Article 2.2.39

(Requirements for listing of shares of Real Estate Investment Companies)

1. Shares representing the capital of Real Estate Investment Companies that meet the requirements referred to in Article 2.2.40 may be admitted to trading provided the clause of the bylaws establishing the corporate purpose provides for investment in and/or leasing of real estate in accordance with their investment policies and the performance of the related instrumental activities. The bylaws shall also provide for substantial changes (such as the use to be made of the assets or the policies of diversification) to the investment policy to be made by the extraordinary shareholders' meeting.
2. Real-Estate Investment Companies shall invest at least 50% of their assets by the date of the start of trading.
3. Foreign issuers must demonstrate that there are no impediments to their substantial compliance with these provisions.
4. Issuers that have failed to comply with the minimum level of diversification referred to in Article 2.2.40, paragraph 9, for more than 12 months must call as soon as possible the extraordinary shareholders' meeting with the aim to modify the investment policy and to adapt the corporate purpose to the activity effectively performed.

Article 2.2.40

(Requirements for Real Estate Investment Companies)

1. Shares may be admitted to trading where they represent the capital of Real Estate Investment Companies that have published and filed, in compliance with national law, their solo or consolidated annual accounts for at least one financial year, accompanied by an opinion of the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company registered with the register held by the Ministry of Economy and Finance in accordance with Legislative decree no. 39 of 27 January or the corresponding applicable provisions of foreign law. Admission to trading may not be granted where the statutory auditor or the statutory auditing company has rendered an adverse opinion or a disclaimer.
2. In the case of recently created companies and by way of derogation from paragraph 1 of Article 2.2.40, Borsa Italiana, in response to a reasoned request from the issuer, may accept a balance sheet and income statement for a period of less than one year provided they have been audited by a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 2.2.40.
3. Companies resulting from extraordinary corporate actions or whose assets and liabilities underwent material changes in the financial year preceding that of the submission of the application or subsequently must produce, in addition to what is provided for in paragraph 1:

- a pro forma income statement for at least one half-year ended prior to the date of submission of the application;
- a pro forma balance sheet referring to the closing date of the half-year preceding the application where the extraordinary corporate actions or the material changes occurred after that date.

Where it emerges during the preparation of the pro forma documents referred to in this paragraph that the accounting data they contain are objectively unreliable, Borsa Italiana may accept different historical accounting reconstructions upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.

4. The accounting documents referred to in paragraph 3 must be accompanied by the report of a statutory auditor or a statutory auditing company which has an adequate knowledge of the subjects involved and his opinion must be based on adequate checking. The report contains the results of the checking activity on the reasonableness of the basic assumptions made in preparing the pro-forma data, the correct application of the methods used and the correctness of the accounting standards applied.

A similar report must be issued by a statutory auditor or an statutory auditing company on historical accounting reconstructions different from pro forma data; the reasons must be given for any limitations or impediments to rendering the opinion.

5. The annual financial statements on a solo and a consolidated basis and the accounting reconstructions that provide the basis for the pro forma documents referred to in paragraph 3 must be fully audited to a preponderant extent. Where this is objectively impossible, Borsa Italiana may accept that only the bulk of the data are fully audited upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer.

6. The issuer must be able to operate in conditions of management autonomy. Borsa Italiana, in assessing the existence of conditions of management autonomy, shall verify that there are no impediments to the maximisation of the issuer's economic and financial objectives. Where Borsa Italiana finds circumstances potentially able to impede the achievement of management autonomy, it shall require the public to be adequately informed at the time of admission to listing and on a continuous basis where appropriate.

Companies subject to direction and coordination by another company must not fall into the conditions that forbid the admission to listing pursuant to Article 37, of the Consob Resolution 16191/2007 as last amended.

2. Borsa Italiana shall specify in the Instructions the documentation to be produced following submission of an application.
3. Applications must refer to all the financial instruments that are part of the same issue. The issuer must specify whether an analogous application has been submitted to another regulated market or will be submitted within twelve months.
4. Until the date of the start of trading, every announcement, notice, poster or document the issuer intends to make public concerning the application for admission and the features of the financial instruments that are the subject of the application must be communicated to Borsa Italiana and mention the fact that the admission procedure is in progress.
6. For the admission to listing of newly-issued financial instruments that are fungible with respect to those already listed and for newly-issued shares of the same class and with the same features, apart from dividend entitlement, as those already listed, the issuer shall inform Borsa Italiana in the manner and within the time limits specified in the Instructions so that the latter can take the necessary action.
7. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, for the purposes of applications for admission to listing referred to in this article, references to Borsa Italiana shall be understood as referring to Consob and references to the issuer as referring to Borsa Italiana.

1. Within two months of the day the documentation to be produced following submission of an application is completed Borsa Italiana shall resolve and inform the issuer of the acceptance or rejection thereof and simultaneously notify the decision to Consob. The time limit is of one month if the application is submitted by an AIM Italia Company or an Elite Company. The admission decision shall be announced in a Notice, except for admissions to the SEDEX, MOT and ETFplus markets. The admission decision shall also establish the market in which the financial instrument is to be traded and the minimum lot, if envisaged.

2. The time limit referred to in paragraph 1 may be interrupted by means of a notification from Borsa Italiana where it is found necessary to acquire additional information and documents. In this case the time limit referred to in paragraph 1 for the acceptance or rejection of the application shall start again from the date of receipt of the documentation in question.
3. The efficacy of the admission decision shall expire after six months and shall be subject to filing of the listing prospectus with Consob or of the publication in Italy of the prospectus approved by the competent authority of another EU member state in accordance with the applicable provisions of Consob Regulation 11971/1999.
4. The admission procedure shall be completed when Borsa Italiana, after ascertaining that the prospectus has been made available to the public, establishes the date for the start of trading and the market segment in which the financial instrument is to be traded. The public shall be informed by means of a Notice.
5. Borsa Italiana must be promptly informed of any new fact likely to significantly influence the assessment of the financial instruments that occurs in the interval between the date of the admission decision and the date of the start of trading. Borsa Italiana, after evaluating such facts and where necessary for the protection of investors, may revoke its admission decision and simultaneously notify the decision to the issuer and Consob.
6. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, for the purposes of the procedure referred to in this article, references to Borsa Italiana shall be understood as referring to Consob and references to the issuer as referring to Borsa Italiana, insofar as applicable.

Article 2.4.3

(Procedure for admission to listing in the case of a simultaneous public offering aimed at the distribution of financial instruments)

1. Applications may be submitted before a public offering aimed at the distribution of the financial instruments has been effected. In such cases the following requirements shall apply:
 - a) the issuer or the sponsor must inform Borsa Italiana of the results of the offering by the trading day following the date fixed for the closure, early or otherwise, of the offering;
 - b) the financial instruments must be allotted to those having entitlement by the date fixed for the related payment, to be set not later than the fifth trading day following that of the closure of the offering. For financial instruments referred to in Article 4.1.1, paragraph 1, letter c), upon receiving a reasoned request from the issuer, Borsa Italiana may arrange for the payment day to be a different day.
2. Within two months of the day the documentation to be produced following submission of an application is completed Borsa Italiana shall resolve and inform the issuer of the acceptance or rejection thereof and simultaneously notify the decision to Consob. The time limit is of one month if the application is submitted by an AIM Italia Company or an Elite Company. The admission decision shall also establish the market in which the financial instrument is to be traded and the minimum lot, if envisaged.

3. The time limit referred to in paragraph 2 may be interrupted by means of a notification from Borsa Italiana where it is found necessary to acquire additional information and documents. In this case the time limit referred to in paragraph 2 for the acceptance or rejection of the application shall start again from the date of receipt of the notification in question.
4. The efficacy of the admission decision shall expire after six months and shall be subject to filing of the listing prospectus and, where applicable, an offering prospectus with Consob or of the publication in Italy of the prospectus approved by the competent authority of another EU member state in accordance with the applicable provisions of Consob Regulation 11971/1999. Exclusively for shares, in the event of withdrawal of the offer, the admission decision shall be null.
5. The issuer shall inform the public of the admission decision referred to in paragraph 2 in the notice to be published for the purposes of the offering.
6. The admission procedure shall be completed when Borsa Italiana, after the conclusion of the offering and after ascertaining the adequate distribution of the financial instruments, establishes the date for the start of trading — which shall normally not be later than the day for payment referred to in paragraph 1 — and the market segment in which the financial instrument is to be traded. The public shall be informed by means of a Notice. Contracts concluded before the payment day shall be subject to the successful conclusion of the offering on the day for the payment thereof.
7. As part of the admission process of financial instruments other than shares and similar instruments, the issuer may use the market for the distribution of those instruments. In such case Borsa Italiana, after verifying that the issuer and the financial instruments satisfy the admission requirements provided by the Rules and the accompanying Instructions, shall admit the financial instrument and the related contracts will be concluded by matching buying and sell orders. At the end of the distribution phase, if it is successful and subject to compliance with the requirements laid down in these Rules and the accompanying Instructions, the admission shall become final and Borsa Italiana shall establish the date for the start of trading on the market.

If the issue of financial instruments does not take place because the admission requirements laid down in these Rules and the accompanying Instructions are not satisfied, the admission decision shall cease to be effective and the contracts concluded shall be null and void.

The procedures for distribution via the market shall be established each time by Borsa Italiana in a Notice. To this end the issuer shall inform Borsa Italiana of the name of the intermediary appointed to display quotes for the sale of the financial instruments that are to be issued if it does not intend to perform this task itself. The issuer shall also inform Borsa Italiana of the days on which the distribution is to take place, the price, the day on which the company will decide whether to proceed with the issue, and the single date set for the settlement of the contracts concluded, which normally coincides with the date set for the issue and payment of the financial instruments.

Entering, management and cancellation of quotes displayed via the electronic trading systems during the distribution phase follow the relevant provisions provided by the Rules and the accompanying Instructions.

8. Borsa Italiana must be promptly informed of any new fact likely to significantly influence the assessment of the financial instruments that occurs in the interval between the date of the admission decision and the date of the start of trading. Borsa Italiana, after evaluating such facts and where necessary for the protection of investors, may revoke the admission decision and simultaneously notify the decision to the issuer and Consob.
9. For financial instruments issued by Borsa Italiana, for the purposes of the procedure referred to in this article, references to Borsa Italiana shall be understood as referring to Consob and references to the issuer as referring to Borsa Italiana, insofar as applicable.

trading and the market segment in which the financial instrument is to be traded. The public shall be informed by means of a Notice.

In such cases Borsa Italiana shall promptly inform the issuer, which shall apply for a confirmation of the declaration according to the model form provided for in the Instructions. Borsa Italiana shall respond within 20 trading days of the submission of the application with all the prescribed documentation.
4. The effectiveness of the declaration of admissibility referred to in paragraph 1 and any confirmation of the same referred to in paragraph 3 shall be subject to Consob authorising publication of the prospectus within 6 months or to the publication in

3. In the MIV market convertible bonds and warrants shall be traded in the segment in which the underlying ordinary shares are traded.

TITLE 4.3

TRADING METHODS

Article 4.3.1 (Trading methods and phases)

1. Trading may be carried on using the auction and continuous trading methods.
2. The trading phases shall be the following:
 - a) opening auction, divided in turn into the phases of determining the theoretical opening-auction price (“pre-auction” phase) and concluding contracts (“opening” phase);
 - b) continuous trading;
 - c) closing auction, divided in turn into the phases of determining the theoretical closing-auction price (“pre-auction” phase) and concluding contracts (“closing” phase);
 - d) trading at the closing auction price.
3. The phase and trading hours shall be established in the Instructions for each market and/or trading segment.

Article 4.3.2 (Orders)

1. Approved intermediaries shall express their willingness to trade through anonymous orders. Specialists shall express their willingness to trade through non anonymous orders. Orders shall contain at least the information relative to the financial instrument to be traded, the quantity, the type of transaction, the type of account, the price, and the method. The orders may also specify different validity parameters based on time and execution of the order and contain the order source. The modalities of entering of such information and the parameters admitted for each order shall be established in the Trading Service Manual.
2. In the pre-auction and continuous trading phases, the following types of orders may be entered:
 - a) with limit price (or limit order), orders that can be executed at an equal or better price compared to their limit price;
 - b) without limit price (or market order), orders that can be executed at any price and always have a higher priority than limit orders;
 - c) stop limit order, orders with a limit price that are activated in the continuous phase once they reach a certain level price of the last contract concluded (so called “stop price”);
 - d) stop order, orders without a limit price that are activated in the continuous phase once they reach a certain level price of the last contract concluded (so called “stop price”).

Stop orders and stop limit orders may not be entered in the MOT, SEDEX and EFFplus markets.

Market order may not be entered in the SEDEX market and in the MTA International segment during the pre-auction phase. In the ETFplus market, market orders may be entered only in the continuous trading phase, without prejudice to article 4.3.11.

3. In the pre-auction phases, the market to limit orders type can also be entered, orders that participate in the auction phase as market orders and can be executed at the auction price; for the eventual remaining part they can be transferred to the continuous trading phase as limit orders.
4. In the continuous phase can also be executed the types of iceberg orders, orders with a limit price and with a partial quantity displayed. The partial quantity displayed must be between the minimum established by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions and the total value of the order. The execution of the whole displayed quantity shall automatically generate a new order. Such order shall be displayed on the book for the same partial quantity or the residual amount of the order with the price of the original order and the time priority corresponding to the time the new order was generated. When all the quantities displayed of the iceberg orders with the same price are executed by the same order, with an opposite sign and quantity exceeding the sum of the quantities displayed of the iceberg orders, the eventual remaining not displayed quantities are executed by the same order in proportion to the remaining not displayed quantity of each iceberg order.
5. Without prejudice to the paragraph 8 of Article 4.3.3, in the trading at the closing auction price phase only market orders, limit orders and market to limit order may be entered.
6. Market intermediaries may enter, modify and cancel orders in the pre-auction phases, in continuous trading and in the trading at the auction price phase.
7. The orders for each instrument shall be automatically ranked on the book according to price — in order of decreasing price if to buy and increasing price if to sell — and, where the price is the same, according to entry time. Modified orders shall lose their time priority if the modification implies an increase in the quantity or a change in the price.
8. Stop orders and stop limit orders have temporal priority according to their time of activation. If several orders are activated upon the same stop price being reached, they are displayed on the market with time priority in accordance with the time of entry of the order.
9. In the cases referred to in Article 4.1.1, paragraph 2, orders may be for the minimum lot or multiples thereof.
10. Limit orders may not be entered with prices above or below the maximum percentage limits for price variations established by Borsa Italiana in the Guide to the Parameters notified in a Notice.
11. In order to ensure the regularity of trading in a financial instrument, Borsa Italiana may establish on a general basis in the Parameter Guide notified in a Notice the maximum quantity of financial instruments that may be the subject of an order, the maximum quantity of financial instruments or, in the cases referred to in Article 4.1.1, paragraph 2, the maximum number of lots that may be entered “at the opening-auction price” or “at the closing-auction price”.

Article 4.3.3

(Functioning of the auction and phase change rules)

1. In the pre-auction phases, the indicative uncrossing price shall be computed and updated in real time. It shall be determined as follows:
 - a) the indicative uncrossing price shall be the price at which the largest quantity of financial instruments can be traded; in the cases referred to in Article 4.1.1, paragraph 2, such quantity shall be equal to or a multiple of the minimum lot;
 - b) where the quantity referred to in subparagraph a) can be traded at more than one price, the indicative uncrossing price shall be equal to the one which produces the smallest quantity that cannot be traded with reference to the buy and sell orders having prices equal to or better than the price in question; in the cases referred to in Article 4.1.1, paragraph 2, such quantity shall be equal to or a multiple of the minimum lot;
 - c) where for more than one price the quantity of instruments that cannot be traded referred to in subparagraph b) is also the same, the indicative uncrossing price shall be equal to the highest price if the greater pressure is on the buy side or with the lowest price if the greater pressure is on the sell side;
 - d) where applying subparagraph c) the market pressure on the buy side is equal to that on the sell side, the indicative uncrossing price shall be equal to the price closest to the static price, referred to in Article 4.3.9, paragraph 1, where the static price is out of the range individuated by the two prices determined applying the previous letter c) or is equal to the static price itself where it is included between the two prices determined applying the previous letter c).
 - e) where no static price exists, the indicative uncrossing price shall be equal to the lowest price among those referred to in the previous subparagraphs.
2. The indicative uncrossing price shall be equal to the dynamic price, referred to in Article 4.3.9, paragraph 2, where only buy and sell orders without a limit price are present.
3. The pre-auction phase shall end at a time within an interval specified by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions.
4. The last indicative uncrossing price shall be considered valid and adopted as the auction price for the conclusion of contracts if it differs from the static price by less than the maximum percentage variation established by Borsa Italiana and provided the indicative auction prices and corresponding volumes remained stable in a predefined period (final validation period). This check is repeated for a limited number of times within the time referred to in paragraph 3. The final validation period duration and the stability criteria of indicative auction prices and corresponding volumes are established in the Guide to the Parameters.

5. If the difference between the indicative uncrossing price and the static price exceeds the maximum percentage variation referred to in the previous paragraph, the volatility auction phase shall be started for a period established by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions.
6. The conclusion of contracts referred to in paragraph 4 shall be the result of the automatic matching of buy orders with prices equal to or higher than the auction price with sell orders with prices equal to or lower than such price in accordance with the price and time priorities of the individual orders and until the quantities available are exhausted.
7. At the end of the opening auction or of the volatility auction, limit orders which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be automatically transferred to continuous trading as limit orders and with the price and time priority of the original order. Unfilled market orders shall be automatically cancelled at the end of the auction. The partially or wholly unfilled market to limit orders shall be transferred to the continuous trading phase as orders with limit price equal to the auction price or in the absence of the latter at the static price and with the time priority of the original order.
8. At the end of the closing auction, limit orders which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be automatically transferred to the trading at the closing auction price phase, if provided, or to the first trading phase of the following day with the price and time priority of the original order, if the validity parameters specified for the order allow it. Unfilled market orders shall be automatically cancelled at the end of the auction. Partially or wholly unfilled market to limit orders, where the validity parameters specified in the order allow it, are transferred to the trading at the closing auction price phase, if provided for and compatibly with the price conditions of such orders, or to the first trading phase of the following day; in such case with a limit price equal to the auction price, or in the absence of the latter to the static price, and with the time priority of the original order.

Article 4.3.4
(Continuous trading)

1. During continuous trading, contracts shall be concluded, up to the quantities available, through the automatic matching of orders of the opposite sign displayed on the book and ranked according to the criteria referred to in Article 4.3.2, paragraph 7 6, as follows:
 - a) the entry of a buy limit order shall result in its being matched with one or more sell orders with a price lower than or equal to that of the order entered; conversely, the entry of a sell limit order shall result in its being matched with one or more buy orders with a price higher than or equal to that of the order entered;
 - b) the entry of a buy market order shall result in its being matched with one or more sell orders with the most advantageous prices on the book at the moment the market order is entered until the quantities available are exhausted; conversely, the entry of a sell market order shall result in its being matched with one or more buy orders with the most advantageous prices on the book at the moment the market order is entered until the quantities available are exhausted. Market orders may be entered only where there is at least one limit order of the opposite sign on the book.

2. For each contract concluded via automatic matching in accordance with paragraph 1, the price shall be equal to that of the order having higher time priority.
3. The partial execution of a limit order shall give rise to the creation of an order for the unfilled quantity that shall remain on the book with the price and time priority of the original order.
4. Orders that are wholly or partly unfilled at the end of continuous trading shall be automatically transferred to the closing pre-auction phase with the price and time priority in force at the end of continuous trading.
5. Where the trading of a financial instrument does not provide for a closing auction, at the end of continuous trading limit orders which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be automatically transferred to the first phase of trading of the following day with the price and time priority of the original order, if the validity parameters of the order so allow.

1. During trading at the closing auction price, contracts shall be concluded, up to the quantities available, at the auction price established in the previous closing auction phase through the automatic matching of orders of the opposite sign displayed on the book and ranked according to the time priority of their entry.
2. The partial execution of a limit order shall give rise to the creation of an order for the unfilled quantity that shall remain on the book with the time priority of the original order.
3. The orders entered during the trading at the closing auction price phase which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be cancelled at the end of the phase. Limit orders coming from the previous trading phase that are wholly or partly unfilled at the end of trading at the closing auction price shall be automatically transferred to the first trading phase of the following day, if the validity parameters specified for the order so allow, with the price and the time priority of the original order.
4. Trading at the closing auction price shall take place only if the closing auction established a valid auction price in accordance with Article 4.3.3, paragraph 4.

Article 4.3.6

(Special procedures for the conclusion of contracts)

1. For the MOT and ETFPlus markets, so-called “committed cross” orders may be entered with the aim of concluding contracts where the counterparty is a specific approved intermediary, provided the price falls within the current volume-weighted average spread, including such prices. 5. ~~3.~~The price of contracts concluded using the procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs ~~4 and 2~~ may fall outside the range established therein if:

6. ~~4.~~The execution of orders referred to in paragraph ~~4 and 2~~ 1 to 4 shall count towards the dynamic price formation under article 4.3.9, whereas this shall not count towards the reference and official price formation, under articles 4.3.7 and 4.3.8.
7. ~~5.~~The execution of orders under paragraph 3 shall not count towards the reference price, the official price and the dynamic price formation referred to in articles 4.3.7, 4.3.8 and 4.3.9.

2. Futures contract shall mean a financial instrument referred to in Article 1.2 of the Consolidated Law on Finance by means of which the parties undertake to exchange a given quantity of the underlying asset at a predetermined price at maturity. The settlement of the contract at maturity may also consist in the exchange of a sum of money determined as the difference between the price of the contract at its conclusion and its settlement price.
3. Options contract shall mean a financial instrument referred to in Article 1.2 of the Consolidated Law on Finance by means of which one of the parties, against payment of a consideration (premium), acquires the right to buy (call option) or sell (put option), on or by the maturity date, a given quantity of the underlying asset at a predetermined price (exercise price). The settlement of the contract may also consist in the exchange of a sum of money determined as the difference, for call options, between the settlement price of the underlying asset and the exercise price and, for put options, between the exercise price and the settlement price of the underlying asset on the day on which the right is exercised or at maturity. 4. The asset underlying a derivative instrument must meet requirements concerning liquidity, continuity of trading, availability or accessibility of all the relevant information, and availability of official or at any rate significant prices. Where the underlying consists of indexes, the methods of calculating and disseminating them must be transparent.

Article 5.1.2

2. Borsa Italiana shall establish in the Instructions the contractual features of each tradable derivative financial instrument referred to in paragraph 1 and, whether it does not refer to a predetermined amount, establish the manner of determining the settlement price of the contracts, which must be based on the principle of a significant volume of trading in the underlying asset. Where the underlying asset consists of indexes managed by Borsa Italiana, the latter shall specify the method of their calculation and dissemination.

TITLE 5.3

TRADING METHODS

Article 5.3.1 (Trading methods and phases)

1. Trading on the IDEM market shall take place using the auction and continuous trading methods.
2. The trading phases are as follows:
 - a) opening auction, divided in turn into the opening theoretical auction price determination phase (“pre-auction”) and the conclusion-of-contracts phase (“opening”);
 - b) continuous trading.
3. The trading hours shall be established in the Instructions.

Article 5.3.2 (Orders)

1. Approved intermediaries shall express their willingness to trade through anonymous orders. Orders shall contain at least the information relative to the derivative instrument to be traded and the quantity, type of transaction, type of account, price and method of execution as specified in the Trading Service Manual of the IDEM market.
2. Orders may be entered in the pre-auction and continuous trading phases with a limit price or without a limit price (“market orders”).
3. Approved intermediaries may enter, modify and cancel orders in both the pre-auction and the continuous trading phases.
4. Orders entered with a limit price in the continuous trading phase may be specified as being iceberg orders. The partial quantity displayed is established according the criteria set by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions. The execution of the whole displayed quantity shall automatically generate a new order. Such order shall be displayed on the book for the same partial quantity or the residual amount of the order with the price of the original order and the time priority corresponding to the time the new order was generated.
5. The orders for each derivative financial instrument shall be automatically ranked on the book according to price — in order of decreasing price if to buy and increasing price if to sell — and, where the price is the same, according to entry time. Modified orders shall lose their time priority if the modification implies an increase in the quantity or a change in the price.
6. The following types of order may be entered:
 - a) “single order”, corresponding to a customer buy or sell order relative to a single contract series;
 - b) “standard combination order” (Combo), corresponding to a combination of two orders relative to different contract series which are executed simultaneously when the appropriate market conditions occur. Borsa Italiana shall establish in the Instructions the operational strategies that may be the subject of standard combination orders;

- c) “quotations”, corresponding to bids and offers entered by the market makers referred to in Article 5.4.1 and the specialists referred to in Article 5.4.2 in compliance with their obligations;
- d) “flexible combination order” (FLEXCO), corresponding to a combination specified by the trader of up to a maximum of 4 orders involving different series, which must be executed simultaneously. Borsa Italiana shall specify the general characteristics of orders in the Instructions.

The types of orders referred to in subparagraphs b) and d) may be entered exclusively for the trading segments specified in the Instructions.

7. Single orders referred to in paragraph 6a), may also specify the “stop-loss” method of execution in the continuous trading phase. This consists in the entry of an order that remains dormant until the market price of a financial instrument traded on the IDEM market reaches the (trigger) price chosen by the approved intermediary on entering the stop-loss order. The subject of the orders activated when the trigger price is reached may only be the financial instrument to which the trigger price refers. Stop-loss orders are activated when the market price is equal to or higher than, or equal to or lower than, the trigger price, depending on the condition specified by the intermediary on entering the order. When entering stop-loss orders, intermediaries may choose the market price to be compared with the trigger price from among:
 - a) the price of the last contract concluded;
 - b) the best bid price or the best ask price.
8. Standard combination orders referred to in paragraph 6b) shall be displayed, with the methods of execution specified in the Trading Service Manual of the IDEM market, in a special book. FLEXCOs referred to in paragraph 6d) shall lead to the creation of a special trading book, if this is not already present in the system, on which the orders shall be displayed in the manner referred to in paragraph 5.
9. Any single orders referred to in paragraph 6a) deriving from standard combination orders or FLEXCOs referred to in paragraphs 6b) and 6d) respectively vary automatically with market conditions. Single orders not deriving from standard combination orders or FLEXCOs shall have time priority with respect to any single orders deriving from standard combination orders or FLEXCOs.
10. The quotations referred to in paragraph 6c) may be entered exclusively with a limit price and without specifying a method of execution and shall be “valid for the session”.
11. Where the orders referred to in paragraph 6 relative to series of options contracts admitted to trading are entered for customer account, they must indicate whether they open a new position or close a previously opened position. Where such indication is omitted or the order was entered for own account, the order shall be automatically indicated as opening a new position.

12. Intermediaries other than market makers and IDEM specialists may request them to display quotations.
13. Limit orders may not be entered with prices above or below the maximum percentage limits for price variations established in the Guide to the Parameters notified in a Notice by Borsa Italiana.
14. In order to ensure the regularity of trading in a financial instrument, Borsa Italiana may establish on a general basis in the Guide to the Parameters notified in a Notice the maximum number of contracts that may be the subject of an order.
15. In order to ensure the smooth technical functioning and efficient use of the electronic trading support systems, Borsa Italiana may impose, inter alia for market makers and IDEM specialists alone, limits on the entry and modification of orders in terms of daily frequency, total daily number or the ratio of orders to contracts concluded. Borsa Italiana shall issue a Notice establishing such limits.

Article 5.3.3

(Functioning of the auction and phase change rules)

1. In the pre-auction phases, the theoretical opening price shall be computed and updated in real time. It shall be determined as follows:
 - a) the theoretical opening price shall be the price at which the largest quantity of financial instruments can be traded;
 - b) where the quantity referred to in subparagraph a) can be traded at more than one price, the theoretical opening price shall be equal to the one which produces the smallest quantity that cannot be traded with reference to the buy and sell orders having prices equal to or better than the price in question;
 - c) where for more than one price the quantity of instruments that cannot be traded referred to in subparagraph b) is also the same, the theoretical opening price shall be the price, identified in the interval of executable prices with the extremes determined by the prices of the orders on the book, that minimises the divergence with respect to the reference price.

The theoretical opening price shall be equal to the price of the last valid contract where only buy and sell orders without a limit price are present.
2. The pre-auction phase shall end at a time within an interval specified by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions.
3. The last theoretical opening price shall be considered valid and adopted as the auction price for the conclusion of contracts if it differs from the static control price by less than the maximum percentage variation established by Borsa Italiana.
4. If the divergence between the theoretical opening price and the static control price exceeds the maximum percentage variation referred to in the previous paragraph, the volatility auction phase shall be started for a period established by Borsa Italiana in the Instructions.
5. The conclusion of contracts referred to in paragraph 3 shall be the result of the automatic matching of buy orders with prices equal to or higher than the auction price with sell orders with prices equal to or lower than such price in accordance with the price and time priorities of the individual orders and until the quantities available are exhausted. Market orders shall always have higher priority than limit orders.

6. If it is not possible to determine the opening price, the continuous trading phase shall start, to which only the limit orders shall be transferred while the market orders shall be cancelled.
7. If no orders of any kind are entered in the auction phase, the continuous trading phase shall nonetheless start.
8. At the end of the opening auction or of the volatility auction:
 - a) limit orders which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be automatically transferred to continuous trading with the price and time priority of the original order, unless different functionality is specified in accordance with the Trading Service Manual of IDEM market;
 - b) market orders which are partly or wholly unfilled shall be automatically transferred to continuous trading as limit orders with price equal to the auction price and time priority of the original order, unless different functionality is specified in accordance with the Trading Service Manual of the IDEM market.

Article 5.3.4 (Continuous trading)

1. During continuous trading contracts shall be concluded, up to the quantities available, through the automatic matching of orders of the opposite sign present on the book and ranked according to the criteria referred to in Article 5.3.2, paragraph 5, as follows:
 - a) the entry of a limit order shall result in its being matched with one or more orders of the opposite sign having a price equal to or better than that of the order entered;
 - b) the entry of a market order shall result in its being matched with one or more orders of the opposite sign on the book at the time the order is entered.
2. The partial execution of a market order shall give rise to the immediate cancellation of the unfilled part, unless a special method of execution specified in the Trading Service Manual of the IDEM market. The partial execution of a limit order shall give rise to the creation of an order for the unfilled quantity that shall remain on the book with the price and time priority of the original order.
3. Standard combination orders and FLEXCOs shall be executed:
 - a) through automatic matching with “single orders” referred to in Article 5.3.2, paragraph 6 (a) of the opposite sign present on the market; or
 - b) on the special trading book referred to in Article 5.3.2, paragraph 8, through automatic matching with other standard combination orders and FLEXCOs of the opposite sign present on that book and ranked according to the criteria referred to in Article 5.3.2, paragraph 5.

Article 5.3.5

(Special procedures for the conclusion of contracts)

1. The orders referred to in article 5.3.2, paragraph 6, letter a), b) and d) may be entered with the aim of concluding contracts where the counterparty is a specific approved intermediary (whose identity is given), provided the price is between the best bid price and the best ask price, including such prices (so called “committed cross”).
2. The orders referred to in article 5.3.2, paragraph 6, letter a), b) and d) may also be entered with the aim of concluding contracts where the counterparty is the approved intermediary that entered the order, provided the price is between the best bid price and the best ask price, including such prices (so called “internal cross”).

The orders concluding committed cross and block trades contracts as of previous paragraphs 1 and 3 can be entered by the Non-executing Broker in the name and on behalf of two approved intermediaries to the IDEM market, with which a specific contractual agreement has been concluded. The contract is concluded on the market between the two intermediaries participating to the IDEM Market. To this end the Non-executing Broker while undertaking its activity shall not deal on own account and/or execute orders on behalf of clients. The derivatives financial instruments of the IDEM market for which such functionality is active are indicated in the Instructions. Borsa Italiana shall establish on a general basis the maximum percentage variations referred to above in the Guide to the Parameters notified in a Notice.
2. Where, during the continuous trading of a financial instrument, the price of a contract that is being concluded exceeds one of the price variation limits referred to in paragraphs 1b) and 1c), the continuous trading of that financial instrument shall be automatically suspended. For series that have been suspended, approved intermediaries may cancel orders already entered but may not modify them nor enter new orders.
