SECOND Bit SYSTEMS ASP COMMUNITY EXPO TO BE HELD IN MILAN ON NOVEMBER 25

Blt Systems, the IT Company of Borsa Italiana, announces that the second Blt Systems ASP Community Expo will take place in Milan on November 25, 2008.

The event, hosted by Borsa Italiana, at Palazzo Mezzanotte, is aimed at business development managers, sales managers and IT managers from both the buy and the sell side.

At the Blt Systems ASP Community Expo some of the leading players in the financial sector have the opportunity to meet with each other to discuss market conditions and the evolution of the IT industry, allowing them to explore their customers' needs to help identify new services that could benefit financial markets.

The Blt Systems ASP Community has more than 50 members, including brokers, ISVs, service providers, MTFs, SIs and exchanges which are connected to Blt Systems.
