BORSA ITALIANA WELCOMES ITALIAN PRIME MINISTER, MARIO MONTI

Borsa Italiana today hosted Italian Prime Minister, Mario Monti.

In Borsa Italiana's headquarters – in Piazza degli Affari, Milan – PM Monti met a relevant representation of the industrial, economic and financial community, with whom there has been a reciprocal exchange of visions on the Government's economic agenda for 2012.

Massimo Tononi, Chairman of Borsa Italiana, said: "We are honoured to host Prime Minister Monti and we are really happy that he chose the headquarters of Borsa Italiana for this important meeting".

"We are certain- continued Raffaele Jerusalemi, CEO of Borsa Italiana- that this meeting with the leading actors of the Italian entrepreneurial and financial community will contribute to strengthen the trust of investors in the perspectives of the economy of our country".
