

Borsa Italiana is awarded 'Best European Exchange for ETF Listings by etfexpress

Yesterday etfexpress awarded Borsa Italiana, 'Best European Exchange for ETF listings during the fifth edition of the etfexpress Global Awards 2014, held in London.

Etfexpress is a Global Funds Media publication, which is one of the largest publishers of online financial news, newswire agencies and specialised newspapers.

Pietro Poletto, Head of Fixed Income and ETF, London Stock Exchange Group said: "We are pleased to receive the prize for the 'Best European Exchange for ETF listings,' which confirms that our strength in this market is recognised by the international financial community. ETFs, ETCs and ETNs are achieving great success on the Italian market, with 2013 seeing a record year for Borsa Italiana. We are the first Exchange in Europe for number of trades on an electronic platform and the third for turnover traded. In 2013, ETFs amassed €5.66 billion of inflow in Italy, representing 42% of total European inflow and setting a new record for the ETFplus market".
