Benchmark Index

Bloomberg Short Treasury Index (the “Index”).

Investment Objective

This Fund seeks to track the performance of the Index.

Primary Investment Strategies

In seeking to achieve its investment objective, the Fund aims to provide a return (comprising both income and capital appreciation) which, before application of fees and expenses, is similar to the return of the Index. The Fund employs a “passive management” – or indexing – investment approach, through physical acquisition of securities, designed to track the performance of the Index. The Index is designed to reflect the universe of publically-traded, fixed-coupon, US Dollar-denominated US Treasury securities with maturities less than one year. The Index includes US Treasury bills, notes and bonds with remaining maturities between one month and one year.

In tracking the performance of the Index, the Fund will invest in a portfolio of fixed-rate, short-term US Dollar-denominated US Treasury securities that so far as possible and practicable consists of a representative sample of the component securities of the Index. See the “The Funds” section of the Prospectus for further information, in particular in relation to optimisation and sampling techniques used in tracking the performance of the Index.

Where consistent with its investment objective, the Fund may also hold fixed-rate US Treasury securities that are not components of the Index, but whose risk and return characteristics closely resemble risk and return characteristics of constituents of the Index or of the Index as a whole. For example, the Investment Manager may acquire newly issued securities which meet all of the requirements for inclusion in the Index in anticipation of such securities being represented in the Index when it next rebalances.

The securities in which the Fund will invest will meet the credit rating requirements of the Index (generally, investment grade). In circumstances where constituent securities of the Index that are held by the Fund are downgraded or have their rating withdrawn, such securities may continue to be held by the Fund until such time as they cease to form part of the Index and the positions can be liquidated by the Investment Manager bearing in mind the best interests of Shareholders.

The securities in which the Fund will invest shall, to the extent required by the UCITS Regulations, be listed or traded on the Regulated Markets set out in “Appendix 5” of the Prospectus.

The Index rebalances on a monthly basis. For potential cost impacts of rebalancing, please see the section of the Prospectus headed “Index rebalancing and costs”. Further information in relation to the Index, including details as to its exact composition, can be obtained at <https://www.bloomberg.com/professional/product/indices/bloomberg-fixed-income-indices/#/ucits>

Other Investment Strategies

The Fund may also invest on an ancillary basis in exchange-traded and over-the counter (“OTC”) financial derivative instruments (“FDI”), provided that any such investment will be undertaken for efficient portfolio management purposes only and in accordance with “Appendix 4” of the Prospectus and the requirements of the Central Bank. Investments in OTC FDI shall be with UCITS-eligible counterparties that have been selected taking into account considerations including best execution and the extent of any counterparty risk exposure applying to the Fund at the time of investment.

Specifically, the Fund may invest in the following FDI:

- Forward Foreign Exchange Contracts. Forward foreign exchange contracts are agreements between parties to exchange fixed amounts of different currencies at an agreed exchange rate at an agreed time in the future. Forward foreign exchange contracts are similar to currency futures, except that they are not exchange-traded, but are instead over the counter instruments. Forward foreign exchange contracts may be used to manage currency exposures. Non-deliverable forward foreign exchange contracts may be used for the same reasons. They differ from standard forward foreign exchange contracts in that at least one of the currencies in the transaction is not permitted to be delivered in settlement of any profit or loss resulting from the transaction. Typically, profit or loss in this case will be delivered in US Dollars or Euro;
- Single name credit default swaps (“CDS”) and credit-default swap indices (for example, CDX) which may be used to hedge credit exposure to a particular issuer, maturity or seniority of debt issuance represented in the Index or, in the case of CDS indices, to a particular sector of the fixed income market or to gain efficient exposure to the foregoing from a costs and/or risk perspective, for example during periods of illiquidity in the bond markets;
- total return swaps (excluding funded swap agreements) which may be used to gain efficient exposure to the constituents of the Index (for example, in circumstances where an Index constituent is illiquid or is otherwise unavailable to the Fund for direct investment due to market or regulatory reasons), to the performance of the Index itself, to reduce transaction costs or taxes or minimise tracking error;
- interest rate futures and swaps to hedge against interest rate risk arising at the level of the Fund’s portfolio; and
- exchange-traded futures and options on single-name bonds or bond indices in order to hedge against risk exposures arising in the portfolio, to manage cash flows on a short term basis and/or to achieve cost efficiencies.

The Fund will not invest in FDI for speculative purposes and only a limited percentage of its assets may be committed to FDI investments at any time. The Fund will not be leveraged as a result of its investment in FDI as it will at all times and, to the extent necessary, hold sufficient cash to cover the exposure arising from any such investment. See “Appendix 4” of the Prospectus for further information on leverage and the calculation of global exposure.

The Fund may invest in foreign exchange spots. A foreign exchange spot trade involves the purchase or sale of a foreign currency and typically settles in the region of two business days after the trade date.

In addition, in tracking the Index, the Fund may, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, invest up to 10% of its net assets in other Funds of the Company and other collective investment undertakings including exchange traded funds and undertakings linked by common management or control to each other or to the Company. See “Appendix 3” of the Prospectus for information on investment in collective investment schemes, including other funds of the Company.

While the Fund attempts to be fully invested each day, the Fund may also invest in short-term, high quality money market instruments (including government securities, bank certificates of deposits or engage in overnight repurchase agreements) and/or money market funds for cash management purposes.

Temporary Investment Measures

The Fund may temporarily depart from the investment strategies set out above in response to the Investment Manager’s perception of extraordinary market, political or similar conditions. During these periods, and for as long as and to the extent deemed necessary by the Investment Manager in the best interests of Shareholders, the Fund may increase its holdings of cash and ancillary liquid assets. In doing so, the Fund may succeed in avoiding losses, but may otherwise fail to achieve its investment objective.

Tracking Error

It is anticipated that, under normal market circumstances, the annualised ex-post Tracking Error of the Fund, will be up to 0.40%. While it is anticipated that the ex-post Tracking Error of the Fund under normal circumstances will not vary significantly from this level, there is no guarantee that this level of Tracking Error of the Fund will be realised and none of the Company, the Manager or the Investment Manager or any of their affiliates will be liable for any discrepancies between the anticipated Tracking Error and the level of Tracking Error subsequently observed. The annual report of the Company will provide an explanation of any divergence between anticipated and realised Tracking Error for the relevant period. Please refer to the section of the Prospectus headed “Plain Talk about Excess Return and Tracking Error” for further information on Tracking Error.

Primary Risks

Please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled “Risk Factors” for information in relation to the risks applicable to an investment in the Company, including any investment in the Fund, including the risk factors entitled “Index Tracking Risk”, “Concentration Risk” and “Country Risk”.

Currency Hedging Policy
