“BTP ITALIA” - SECOND ISSUANCE RAISED 1,738 BILLION EURO ON MOT

- Yearly coupon rate at 3.55%
- Continuous trading starting Monday 11 June

The distribution period of the second “BTP Italia”, the government bond designed by the Treasury mainly for private investors and linked to domestic-inflation, ended today on MOT, Borsa Italiana’s retail bond market.

In four days of distribution, total turnover raised was equal to 1,738 billion euro with 44.688 total contracts. Starting Monday 11 the bond will be traded on MOT according to usual rules, as all other government bonds.

The yearly coupon rate defined by a Treasury decree was fixed at 3.55 %.

MOT, further to being the only Italian bonds regulated market dedicated to private investors, is an efficient electronic platform and, as a retail market, boasts the record in Europe for contracts and turnover.
