5-Year Certificates linked to the Credit of Markit iTraxx Europe Series 42 Version 1 – 4.00%-7.20% Zero Recovery Tranche (in EUR)

Investment Rationale

The Securities offer an investor an annual coupon payment and a redemption of their initial investment at maturity either in whole (where the Accumulated Loss determined in respect of the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is less than or equal to the Lower Boundary) or in part (where the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is greater than the Lower Boundary and below the Upper Boundary), reflecting the credit risk of the Reference Entities, subject to a minimum of zero (where the relevant Accumulated Loss is greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary).

The Securities have a "zero recovery" feature, where the Accumulated Loss will increase with the occurrence of each Event Determination Date in respect of one or more Reference Entities by an amount equal to the Reference Entity Weighting of the relevant affected Reference Entity. Investors are paid a Coupon Amount which has been enhanced to take into account the "zero recovery" feature of the Securities as described above.

An investor purchasing the Securities expects that the Accumulated Loss, during the term of the Securities, will not be greater than the Lower Boundary.

Risk of Loss

The Securities are not principal protected. Investors may not make any profit and may lose some or all of their investment.

Entitlements of the Securities

Each Security entitles its holder to receive the relevant Coupon Amount on each relevant Coupon Payment Date, provided that the Accumulated Loss is not greater than the Lower Boundary.

Additionally, if the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is less than or equal to the Lower Boundary, each Security entitles its holder to receive a cash payment in the Specified Currency equal to the Reference Amount (i.e., EUR 100,000 per Security) on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date.

On any Coupon Payment Date or the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date, as applicable, the relevant Coupon Amount or Redemption Amount, as applicable, may be reduced where one or more Reference Entities may have suffered a Credit Event but no Event Determination Date has occurred (based on whether either the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee is in the process of determining whether a Credit Event has occurred or, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a request to the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee to make such a determination has been made). In such circumstances, if it is subsequently determined that no Credit Event had occurred within the relevant timeframe, the amount by which the relevant Coupon Amount and/or the Redemption Amount was reduced will be subsequently payable to holders. Such additional amounts are Additional Coupon Amounts and Additional Instalment Amounts, as applicable.

Therefore, the potential return on a Security is limited to the positive difference between (i) the aggregate of the Coupon Amounts and any Additional Coupon Amounts plus the aggregate of the Redemption Amount and any Additional Instalment Amounts, and (ii) the Issue Price (or, if different, the price the relevant investor paid for such Security).

If the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is greater than the Lower Boundary and below the Upper Boundary, each Security entitles its holder to receive on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date the Coupon Bearing Amount, which may be considerably less than the Reference Amount and such holder's initial investment in such Securities. If the Accumulated Loss is greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary, the Redemption Amount will be equal to zero.

In addition, if on account of Credit Events, the Accumulated Loss in respect of any Coupon Payment Date is greater than the Lower Boundary, the Coupon Amount will be reduced. If the aggregate of the Triggered Reference Entity Losses are equal to or greater than the Upper Boundary, no further Coupon Amount will accrue or be paid.

The calculation of the Coupon Bearing Amount produces a leverage effect such that to the extent that the aggregate of the Triggered Reference Entity Losses exceed the Lower Boundary, the Coupon Bearing Amount, and therefore the Redemption Amount and any Coupon Amount (if any) payable, will be reduced on an accelerated and highly leveraged basis by reference to each relevant Reference Entity's Reference Entity Weighting as a proportion of the Tranche Size.

In a worst case scenario, an Event Determination Date occurs with respect to many Reference Entities on or prior to the first Coupon Payment Date and the aggregate of the Triggered Reference Entity Losses are equal to or greater than the Upper Boundary, which would mean that no Coupon Amount will be paid, and the Redemption Amount would be equal to zero. Therefore, a total or substantial loss of the amount invested in the Securities is possible.

Each of the above terms is defined in the Credit Linked Provisions (see "Credit Linked Provisions" below).

The occurrence of a Credit Event may give rise to an Event Determination Date which in turn shall lead to an increase in the Notional Reduction Amount and the Accumulated Loss.

Redemption Amount

The Redemption Amount depends on the Accumulated Loss which is a function of the number of Event Determination Dates that have occurred and is an amount in the Specified Currency, determined by the Calculation Agent as follows:

- Payment in case the Accumulated Loss is less than or equal to the Lower Boundary
- Payment in case the Accumulated Loss is greater than the Lower Boundary and below the Upper Boundary
- Payment in case the Accumulated Loss is greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary

If the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Coupon Payment Date scheduled to fall on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is less than or equal to the Lower Boundary, each Holder shall receive a payment in the Specified Currency per Security on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date equal to the Reference Amount.

If the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Coupon Payment Date scheduled to fall on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is greater than the Lower Boundary and below the Upper Boundary, each Holder shall receive a payment in the Specified Currency per Security on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date equal to the applicable Coupon Bearing Amount.

If the Accumulated Loss in respect of the Coupon Payment Date scheduled to fall on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary, each Holder shall not receive a payment in the Specified Currency per Security on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date.

Additional Instalment Amount

If one or more Affected Reference Entities existed as of the Coupon Payment Date falling on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date and:

(1) the aggregate of the Triggered Reference Entity Losses is less than the Upper Boundary; and

(2) the Accumulated Loss is greater than the Lower Boundary, in each case in respect of the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date, then on each Additional Instalment Date (if any), an additional instalment amount shall be payable on each Additional Instalment Date in addition to the Redemption Amount equal to:

- (i) the Revised Coupon Bearing Amount calculated in respect of the Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date in respect of such Reference Entity (the "Relevant Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date"); minus
- (ii) the Revised Coupon Bearing Amount calculated in respect of the Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date immediately preceding such Relevant Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date, or if no such Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date has occurred, the Redemption Amount.

"Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date" means, in respect of a Reference Entity that was an Affected Reference Entity in respect of the Coupon Payment Date falling on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date, the Determination Date in respect of such Reference Entity.

"Revised Coupon Bearing Amount" means, in respect of a Redemption Adjustment Calculation Date, the Redemption Amount that would have been payable on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date if the Notional Reduction Amount were recalculated by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Coupon Payment Date falling on the Scheduled

Redemption Date and Settlement Date but with the Calculation Agent making such calculation on the basis that in respect of each Reference Entity that was an Affected Reference Entity in respect of the Coupon Payment Date falling on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date for which a Determination Date has occurred, either:

- (i) where such Determination Date arises as a result of an Applicable Event Determination Date, such Reference Entity is treated as having been a Triggered Reference Entity; or
- (ii) otherwise, such Reference Entity is treated as having been neither an Affected Reference Entity nor a Triggered Reference Entity.

The Calculation Agent shall determine the Revised Coupon Bearing Amount based on a determination by the Calculation Agent of the recalculated Notional Reduction Amount.

"Additional Instalment Date" means, in respect of a Reference Entity that was an Affected Reference Entity in respect of the Coupon Payment Date falling on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date, the day falling five Business Days after such Event Determination Date.

Inconsistency between determinations of the "Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee" and the Calculation Agent

If the Calculation Agent's determination is overruled by a decision of the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committees (a "Committee Determination") within 90 calendar days of the Calculation Agent's determination, provided that such Committee Determination is made at least five Business Days before the Redemption Date and Settlement Date, the Calculation Agent's determination shall be substituted by the Committee Determination on and from the date of the Calculation Agent's determination and the Calculation Agent shall, within a reasonable time period, make all necessary amendments to the terms of the Securities or undertake all necessary actions to give effect to the adoption of the Committee Determination.

Each Security entitles its holder to receive the relevant Coupon Amount on each relevant Coupon Payment Date, provided that the aggregate Triggered Reference Entity Losses are not greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary.

Additionally, if the Accumulated Loss is less than or equal to the Lower Boundary, each Security entitles its holder to receive a cash payment in the Specified Currency equal to the Reference Amount (i.e., EUR 100,000 per Security) on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date.

On any Coupon Payment or the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date, as applicable, the relevant Coupon Amount or Redemption Amount, as applicable, may be reduced where one or more Reference Entities may have suffered a Credit Event but no Event Determination Date has occurred (based on whether either the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee is in the process of determining whether a Credit Event has occurred or, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a request to the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee to make such a determination has been made). In such circumstances, if it is subsequently determined that no Credit Event had occurred within the relevant timeframe, the amount by which the relevant Coupon Payment and/or the Redemption Amount was reduced will be subsequently payable to holders. Such additional amounts are Additional Coupon Amounts and Additional Instalment Amounts, as applicable.

Therefore, the potential return on a Security is limited to the positive difference between (i) the aggregate the Coupon Amounts and any Additional Coupon Amounts plus the aggregate of the Redemption Amount and any Additional Instalment Amounts, and (ii) the Issue Price (or, if different, the price the relevant investor paid for such Security).

If the Accumulated Loss at the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date is greater than the Lower Boundary and below the Upper Boundary, each Security entitles its holder to receive on the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date the Coupon Bearing Amount, which may be considerably less than the Reference Amount and such holder's initial investment in such Securities. If the Accumulated Loss is greater than or equal to the Upper Boundary, the Redemption Amount will be equal to zero.

In addition, if on account of Credit Events, the Accumulated Loss is greater than the Lower Boundary, the Coupon Amount will be reduced. If the aggregate Triggered Reference Entity Losses are equal to or greater than the Upper Boundary, no further Coupon Amount will accrue or be paid.

The calculation of the Coupon Bearing Amount produces a leverage effect such that to the extent that the aggregate of the Triggered Reference Entity Losses exceed the Lower Boundary, the Coupon Bearing Amount, and therefore the Redemption Amount and any Coupon Amount (if any) payable, will be reduced on an accelerated and highly leveraged basis by reference to each relevant Reference Entity's Reference Entity Weighting as a proportion of the Tranche Size.

In a worst case scenario, an Event Determination Date occurs with respect to many Reference Entities on or prior to the first Coupon Payment Date and the aggregate Triggered Reference Entity Losses are equal to or greater than the Upper Boundary, which would mean that no Coupon Amount will be paid, and the Redemption Amount would be equal to zero.

Therefore, a total or substantial loss of the amount invested in the Securities is possible.

Risk Factors

Investing in the proposed issue of Securities involves a number of risks. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Offering Circular from pages 36 to 147 and, if applicable, in the Pricing Supplement relating to the specific issue of Securities.

Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the final U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder ("Section 871(m)") generally impose a 30% withholding tax (unless an income tax treaty applies) on dividend equivalent amounts paid or deemed paid to Non-U.S. Holders with respect to certain financial instruments linked to U.S. equities or indices that include U.S. equities. Section 871(m) provides certain exceptions to this withholding regime, in particular for instruments linked to certain broad-based indices that meet requirements set forth in the applicable Treasury regulations (such as an index, a "Qualified Index"). Additionally, a recent Notice published by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") excludes from the scope of Section 871(m) instruments issued prior to 2027 that are not "delta-one" instruments with respect to underlying securities that could pay U.S.-source dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes (each an "Underlying Security"). Based on certain determinations made by the Issuer and its affiliates, the Issuer expects that Section 871(m) will not apply to the Securities with regard to Non-U.S. Holders. Such determination is not binding on the IRS and the IRS may disagree with this determination. Section 871(m) is complex and its application may depend on a Holder's particular circumstances, including whether a Holder enters into other transactions with respect to an Underlying Security. Holders should consult with their own tax advisers regarding the potential application of Section 871(m) to the Securities.

Risks Associated with Credit Linked Certificates

An investment in Credit Linked Certificates entails significant risks in addition to those associated with investments in a conventional debt security, including, but not limited to, those described below. See Risk Factor 6.12 (Risks related to Credit Linked Notes) in the Offering Circular from pages 133 to 141 and, if applicable, in the Pricing Supplement relating to the specific issue of Securities. See also Commonly Asked Question 36 (What are the Credit Linked Provisions?) in the Offering Circular from pages 194 to 210.

You are assuming the Credit risk of the Reference Entity

If an Event Determination Date occurs, the Securities will be subject to redemption at a price which may be at a considerable discount to par and could be zero and interest (or, in respect of Credit Linked Certificates referencing a Credit Index, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Securities, a portion of the interest) will cease to accrue from (and including) the interest payment date immediately preceding the relevant Event Determination Date (or, if the terms and conditions of the Securities provide for interest accrual up to the Event Determination Date, interest will cease to accrue from (and including) the relevant Event Determination Date). The Securities explicitly bear the credit risk of the Reference Entity (or, in respect of Credit Linked Certificates referencing a Credit Index, the Reference Entities) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and any Successor(s) thereto identified by the Calculation Agent or the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee, in each case, in accordance with the definition of "Successor" in the Credit Linked Provisions, or, in respect of Credit Linked Certificates linked to a Credit Index, as identified by the index sponsor in respect of such Credit Index. Even where a Credit Event has not occurred, the market value of the Securities may be adversely affected when the probability or perceived probability of a Credit Event occurring in relation to the Reference Entity, or Reference Entities, as applicable, increases.

Redemption of the Securities may be deferred even where no Event Determination Date occurs

In certain circumstances, and as more fully described in the Credit Linked Provisions and/or the relevant Pricing Supplement, the redemption of the Securities may be postponed beyond the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date even if no Event Determination Date actually occurs. The period of such deferral may be substantial. Even where an Event Determination Date does not occur, interest payable to Holders for the period following the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date may be substantially lower than any interest rate applicable to the Securities prior to the Scheduled Redemption Date and Settlement Date.

Payment of interest and/or principal may be deferred

In certain circumstances, and as more fully described in the Credit Linked Provisions, payment of interest or principal, or in each case a portion thereof, may be postponed where a Reference Entity, or one or more Reference Entities, as applicable, may have suffered a Credit Event but no Event Determination Date has occurred (based on whether either the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee is in the process of determining whether a Credit Event has occurred or, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a Credit Event may have occurred or a request to the Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee to make such a determination has been made). If it is subsequently determined that no Credit Event has occurred within the relevant timeframe, the relevant interest, principal, or, in each case, a portion thereof, will be subsequently payable to Holders or, if it is subsequently determined that a Credit Event had occurred within the relevant timeframe, and subject as provided in the terms and conditions of the Securities, such amounts will not be payable.

Risks if the Credit Linked Certificates are "zero recovery" Credit Linked Certificates

If the Credit Linked Certificates are "zero recovery" Securities, as provided in the applicable terms and conditions of the Securities, and an Event Determination Date occurs in respect of a Reference Entity, then you will suffer a loss of all of the principal amount of your Securities (or, in respect of Credit Linked Certificates referencing a Credit Index, subject as provided in the terms and conditions of the Securities, a loss of all of the principal amount of your Securities as it relates to such Reference Entity).

Risks in respect of Credit Linked Certificates that are linked to a Credit Index

(a) Holders are exposed to the credit risk of a portfolio of Reference Entities

Holders of Credit Linked Certificates that are linked to a Credit Index are exposed to the performance of the portfolio of Reference Entities comprising the Credit Index (the "Reference Portfolio"). Following the occurrence of an Event Determination Date in relation to a Credit Event with respect to a Reference Entity in the Reference Portfolio, subject to the terms and conditions of the Securities, payments of interest and principal may be reduced. Such reduction may be in proportion to the losses suffered under the Credit Index, or may be determined by reference to a particular 'tranche' of losses of the Credit Index (in respect of which see sub-paragraph (b) below).

(b) Credit Linked Certificates that are linked to a Credit Index on a tranching basis represent a particularly risky form of investment

Credit Linked Certificates that are linked to a Credit Index on a tranching basis (as opposed to on an untranching basis) determine payments of interest and principal by reference to pre-determined upper and lower boundaries designating the relevant 'tranche' and any reduction in the amount payable to a Holder will be determined by reference to the extent to which losses under the Credit Index exceed the lower boundary relative to the amount by which the upper boundary exceeds the lower boundary (the 'tranche size'). If losses under the Credit Index equal or exceed the upper boundary, a Holder will suffer a loss of their entire investment.

Credit Linked Certificates that are linked to a Credit Index on a tranching basis represent a particularly risky form of investment as the calculation of the interest bearing amount (the notional amount by reference to which interest and return of principal is determined) produces a leverage effect such that, if the aggregate of the losses suffered under the Credit Index exceed the lower boundary, any further losses that increase the aggregate losses above the lower boundary and towards the upper boundary will reduce the interest bearing amount, and therefore the redemption amount and any interest amount (if any) payable, on an accelerated and highly leveraged basis by reference to each relevant Reference Entity's weight in the Credit Index as a proportion of the tranche size.

Receipt of Commission or Fees or Monetary or Non-monetary Benefits

The financial intermediary represents and warrants that:

- A. any fee or commission (including, if applicable, by way of discount) paid or payable or non-monetary benefit provided or being provided to it by the Dealer complies with all applicable law,
- B. it undertakes to maintain a record as to how such fee, commission or non-monetary benefit complies with all applicable law and make such records available to the Dealer on request;
- C. it undertakes to fully disclose the existence, nature and amount of any fee, commission or non-monetary benefit to its client and it acknowledges that the Dealer will not make any such disclosure;
- D. it has determined that the receipt of any fee, commission or non-monetary benefit does not conflict with its duty to act in the best interests of its client; and
- E. it has determined that the fee, commission or non-monetary benefit is designed to enhance the quality of the service provided by it to its client including that:
 - 1. it is justified by the provision of a higher level service to its client and is proportional to the level of service received;
 - 2. does not directly benefit the financial intermediary, its shareholders or employees without tangible benefit to its client;
 - 3. with respect to any fee, commission or non-monetary benefit payable or being provided on an ongoing basis, is justified by the provision of an ongoing benefit to its client; and
 - 4. the provision of the service to its client is not biased or distorted as a result of the fee, commission or non-monetary benefit.

The financial intermediary acknowledges and agrees that the Dealer will not be required to and does not intend to sell Securities to it at a discount to the issue price or pay any fee or commission where applicable law would prohibit the financial intermediary from receiving such fee or commission or acquiring Securities at a discount to the issue price. If Directive 2014/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on Markets in Financial Instruments (including where applicable as implemented under UK law, such implementing legislation being preserved under UK law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (as amended) ("MiFID II")) or the UK FCA's Conduct of business sourcebook rules ("COBS Rules") apply to the financial intermediary and it provides portfolio management services or independent investment advice and, where permitted by applicable law, it accepts or retains fees, commissions or any monetary or non-monetary benefits from the Dealer, the financial intermediary acknowledges and agrees that it will transfer and allocate such fees, commissions or any monetary benefits to each client, pursuant to such applicable law, as soon as reasonably possible after receipt in line with MiFID II or the UK FCA's COBS Rules.

The Dealer

In connection with any offer, sale and issue of Securities referred to in this Term Sheet, the Dealer is acting as principal and not as agent of the proposed issue of such Securities. Any agreement to issue Securities shall be subject to approval by the proposed issuer of the Securities (or such other issuer as may be agreed between J.P. Morgan and the financial intermediary) as set out in the Pricing Supplement relating to such Securities. The Issuer has no obligation to issue the proposed Securities.

Potential Conflicts

J.P. Morgan plays a variety of roles in connection with the proposed issue of Securities, including acting as Calculation Agent and hedging of the Issuer's obligations under the Securities, as well as Issuer, Guarantor (if applicable) and Dealer. In performing these duties, the economic interests of J.P. Morgan are potentially adverse to the interests of holders of such Securities.

Structured Products Terms of Business

To the extent that the purchaser purchasing the issued Securities for distribution to third parties or, if applicable, introducing broker of such Securities, has not signed the Structured Products Terms of Business of the Dealer and its affiliates (the "JPMorgan Group") ("Terms of Business") or a distribution agreement with a member of the JPMorgan Group, by its agreement to purchase and distribute to its clients, or procure the purchase of such Securities, such purchaser or introducing broker is deemed to agree to accept and be bound by the Terms of Business, including but not limited to, its obligations owed to the Dealer and its affiliates and its covenant to indemnify the Dealer and its affiliates for any losses incurred as a result of any failure by it to comply with its obligations, duties and representations thereunder, and that the purchase and distribution of such Securities are subject to the Terms of Business (copies of the Terms of Business may be obtained on request and, in any event, have been sent to such purchaser or introducing broker by registered mail).

Where the financial intermediary has entered into terms of business with the Dealer, the Structured Products Terms of Business, rather than those terms of business, shall govern the financial intermediary's relationship with the Dealer in relation to the distribution of the Securities.

Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and Regulations

The financial intermediary represents that it is in compliance with, and will remain in compliance with, all laws, rules, and regulations of any jurisdiction applicable to the parties concerning or related to bribery or corruption (Anti-Corruption Laws and Regulations). No part of the payments received by the financial intermediary, directly or indirectly, from J.P. Morgan, will be used for any purpose that would cause a violation of Anti-Corruption Laws and Regulations. J.P. Morgan may terminate the Terms of Business immediately upon written notice in the event that it concludes, in its sole discretion, that the financial intermediary has breached this or any other representation or warranty related to Anti-Corruption Laws and Regulations, or that a breach is substantially likely to occur unless the Terms of Business is so terminated.

Compliance with the Selling Restrictions

When marketing, promoting or purchasing any issued Securities, the financial intermediary represents and warrants to observe the Selling Restrictions as reflected in the Pricing Supplement prepared for the relevant issue of Securities and the terms contained therein.

Additional Selling Restrictions

Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (as amended, the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the United Kingdom has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.
